single word requests

Similarly, "free education" is funded by the state (which is ultimately financed by taxpayers) and taught in state-run schools called state schools whereas schools that charge tuition

For free vs. free of charges

I don't think there's any difference in meaning, although "free of charges" is much less common than "free of charge". Regarding your second question about context: given that English

word usage

I want to make a official call and ask the other person whether he is free or not at that particular time. I think asking, "Are you free now?" doesn't sound formal. So, are there any alternatives

"Free of" vs. "Free from"

If so, my analysis amounts to a rule in search of actual usage-a prescription rather than a description. In any event, the impressive rise of "free of" against "free from" over the past 100 years

Why does "free" have 2 meanings? (Gratis and Libre)

1 ' Free ' absolutely means 'free from any sorts constraints or controls. The context determines its different denotations, if any, as in 'free press', 'free speech', 'free stuff' etc.
